It's a 28cm diameter racing wheel with a solid base and pedals, as well as excellent force feedback, which we rated as superior to the Logitech G29. It was the best lap of the PS4 racing sim and, in good news, it is working with the PS5 - a great buy before the release of Gran Turismo 7 next year. Price: £330 | Box | Currys This Asus headset, which we reviewed back last December, remains a fantastic opportunity for players looking for a third-party alternative to Pulse 3D Wireless headsets. You can pick up this 6ft Anker cable for less than £8 now, addressing any cable restrictions you might expect (or not in the hope) to have.
